

Dual Living Designed for the Extended Family

Offering exceptional versatility across two fully functional levels, this spacious home is perfectly suited to large families, extended families or those seeking a genuine dual-living opportunity. With full kitchens, living areas and bathroom facilities on both levels, the layout provides flexibility rarely found in today's market, allowing multiple generations to live comfortably under one roof while still enjoying their own space and privacy.

Connected by an internal staircase, the home offers multiple living zones, flexible accommodation options and plenty of room for the family to spread out.
