Beyond Ordinary Living

Homes of this calibre are exceptionally rare. Designed on a grand scale with family living at its core, this impressive residence delivers a remarkable combination of space, comfort and functionality that simply exceeds expectations. Every room has been generously proportioned, creating a home that feels open, luxurious and perfectly suited to large or growing families, multigenerational living or those who simply refuse to compromise on space.

From the dedicated theatre room and multiple living zones to the expansive open plan kitchen and dining area, sparkling inground swimming pool and powered shed with drive through access, every element has been carefully considered to enhance everyday living. Combining premium inclusions with exceptional proportions, this is a home that truly stands apart from anything else currently available in the area.
