

SOLD By Carrie of Carrie Hubert Open Property

Centrally located, this well-positioned home offers convenience, character and plenty of potential. Fresh and inviting, the home has been completely repainted throughout the interior and has all-new carpet. The home now offers a clean, bright and refreshed feel ready for its new owners. The front stairs lead to a welcoming balcony before stepping inside to a spacious open-plan design with defined living and dining areas. The renovated kitchen features quality Miele appliances, excellent functionality and views across the backyard. Split-system air conditioning and solar add to the comfort and practicality of this well-located home. A fantastic opportunity to secure a well-presented home in an incredibly central location, with so much of Townsville right at your doorstep.
